

Inside Syria

The Backstory of their Civil War and What the World Can Expect

A talk with journalist
Reese Erlich

Reese Erlich, a freelance foreign correspondent, working in the Middle East, will present a talk about his work in Syria. Based on numerous reporting trips to the region, Erlich will discuss the growth of Syrian extremist rebel groups, the status of the Assad regime, foreign intervention and the failure of U.S. policy. He will provide up to date analysis and what the new U.S. president faces in one of the world's major crises.

Friday, February 3 @ 6pm

Northampton Friends Meeting

43 Center Street, Northampton MA 01060

Sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee